Employee Statement of Qualification for Exemption from Florida Public Records Law for Limited Information

INSTRUCTIONS:

Florida Law (119.071, F.S.) defines classes of employees who qualify for non-disclosure of limited information in response to a request to view or copy a public record related to such persons. The specific types of information that must be protected vary by the covered class.

This form is used by an employee to notify the Appointing Authority that the employee qualifies for limited public record exemptions. It may be provided to all newly appointed Hillsborough County Classified Employees. It may also be used in response to changes in an employee’s relevant life circumstances or, changes in public records law.

Please put an “X” in the box to the left of ALL job descriptions that either (A) Describe a job you are/were employed in and/or (B) Describe a job of someone to whom you are related as a spouse or a child. If none of the job descriptions or columns fit your life circumstances, check Line C near the end of this form.

Finally, print your name and agency/department at the end of this form and sign and date it.
